ART 6900 Public-Making in Contemporary Practices Spring 2017

Student Name _____

Prior Knowledge Assessment

What is this?

A prior knowledge self-assessment asks students to reflect and comment on their level of knowledge and skill across a range of items.

Why are you asking me to do this?

Short answer: Because it helps you and I assess the quality of our learning together.

I will ask you to take this assessment tool again at the end of the semester so that you can see how much you've learned during our time together.

NOTE

There is no penalty for not knowing something in this assessment. However, you will receive a participation grade for completing this self-assessment.

1. What do you expect to learn in this class?

2. How familiar are you with public art making?
   a) I have never heard of it or I have heard of it but don't know what it is.
   b) I have some idea what it is, but don't know when or how to do it.
   c) I have a clear idea what it is, but haven't done it.
   d) I can explain what it is and when to do it, and I have done it before.

3. Have you designed and executed a grant proposal before?
   a) I have neither designed nor built one.
   b) I have designed one, but not built one.
   c) I have built one, but not designed one.
   d) I have both designed and built one.

4. How familiar are you with using GSU's Library for conducting artistic research?
   a) I have never visited it.
   b) I have visited it, but don't know how to use it.
   c) I have some idea of how to use it, but it's not very clear.
   d) I know how to do this and could explain it to others.

5. Have you ever had your own work published by someone or have you ever worked with a publisher that publishes the works of others?
   a) I have had my work published by someone else.
   b) I have self-published my own work.
   c) I have worked with a publisher that publishes the works of others.
   d) I have not yet engaged in publishing activities.